Intensive German Language Course

During a nine-week intensive German course for beginners, you will acquire a basic knowledge of academic and colloquial usage of the German language which will enable you to manage your private and everyday life at the university.

This course is designed to provide you with a basic vocabulary and understanding of grammatical structures. With focus on communication, you will be guided and accompanied by an experienced and competent teacher. In a pleasant learning atmosphere, you will be able to establish and improve your German language skills.

No course fee!
